STANDING ORDER REGARDING LANGUAGE IN PLEADINGS

The Judge of the 106th Judicial District finds and holds that all filings in a case before this Court shall be in the English language or shall include a translation of the filing in the English language.

It is accordingly ORDERED that the District Clerk of each county in the 106th District is to return all filings that are not in the English language or do not include a translation of the filing in the English language. Any such filing is to be returned to the presenter along with a copy of this order.

Signed September 17, 2010.

Carter T. Schildknecht, Judge Presiding
