

AN ORDER OF THE GARZA COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT

The coronavirus is very contagious and easily transmitted disease. No cure is currently available. The Garza County courthouse and other offices will continue to be open with some modifications.

Hence:

Continue to serve our community with the least amount of public interaction as directed by your Elected Official or Department head.

Use all hygiene practices available as the Elected Official and Department head considers prudent.

Payroll will continue when an employee is self-quarantined. After one week testing is required, if possible, as supported by the Elected Official or Department head.

Payroll will continue for all full and part time employees if they test positive or display symptoms of the virus.

These revisions in our policy will continue as needed and until this crisis is over.

AS ORDERED on March 24, 2020.
